Mum's Little Buttercup

Item-no. 671398

One kid is fond of butter crumble, the other just loves chocolate dough. To stop the two from constant arguing, mum simply started making succulent chocolate muffins topped with crunchy butter crumble. And what she herself likes best about them: the chocolate filling will instantly make any adult's mouth water, too.

Mum's Tiny Choco Monster

Item-no. 604399

Just one more mouthful of luscious chocolate cake dough, the nose splashed with the sweet chocolate filling, nibbling at the crunchy chocolate chunks... This dream will come true with Mum's Tiny Choco Monsters - for passionate chocolatey tooth only.

Mum's Berry Sunshine

Item-no. 602399

Arms and legs scratched from roaming the woods, but with plenty of blueberries in the basket. This is how we would cherry-cheekedly stand in front of mum, knowing that she was about to turn our blueberry harvest into the tastiest muffins ever! A smooth sponge mixture with juicy blueberries and on top - how could it be otherwise - fine icing sugar!

Mum's Cute Cherry Pie

Item-no. 624399

Picking cherries in grandma's garden was always great! Let alone hanging them over your ears... But even better were the delicious cherry almond muffins which mum would turn them into: juicy sweet cherries in a wonderful sponge mixture, crowned with crispy sliced almonds.

Mum's Sweetheart

Item-no. 610398

Every kid got it for their birthday at least once - the typical chocolate drop cake. Now it is available in muffin form: a fluffy and dainty sponge mixture paired with crunchy chocolate chunks. But the best thing is: it comes with a liquid chocolate filling!

Mum's Tasty Nana-Nut

Item-no. 626399

Back in the day, it was „nana-nut“ - after all, every kid likes bananas. And nibbling nuts off of muffins has been great fun ever since! Today, though, we are able to order with more gusto: I'd like a succulent banana sponge muffin with crispy walnuts on top!
